MAY CALL A SPECIAL SESSION

Governor Willis May Convene Legislative Body to Relieve the High Cost of Living.

May Also Confirm Appointments.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, November 15.—A special session of the Legislature may be called at once by Governor Willis to investigate the high cost of living, and incidentally to confirm appointments made by Governor Willis before he leaves office.

If such a call is issued, it is not considered likely that the session would begin before December 1.

Until today Governor Willis had opposed a special session of the Legislature merely to confirm his appointments, but at a conference of department heads and Republican leaders with the Governor last night, it was pointed out that a real crisis existed, and that the demands of the Ohio miners made upon the Governor this week for a probe of the high cost of living should be made the subject of a state and federal probe.

It was this suggestion which the Governor was giving serious consideration today.

Ohio miners, in their petition to the Governor and President Wilson for an investigation of the high cost of living, charged "unfair and illegal speculation of foodstuffs and of other necessary commodities" as being the cause of the high cost of living.

The coal car shortage situation in Ohio and subsequent high prices charged for coal may also be included in the investigation, if one is started.

Among appointees of Governor Willis not yet confirmed is Louis M. Day, Democrat, of Chillicothe, member of the State Utilities Commission.

GOING AFTER THE EMBARGO

State Utilities Commission Sends Men to Akron to Look Into Conditions.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., November 15.—The State Utilities Commission today assigned M. J. Heffernan and F. H. Lashley to go to Akron, Ohio, to investigate a reported embargo on coal cars at that point by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

It is said that the B. & O. has about a thousand coal cars tied up outside the city and has stated that it will not release them to the city until cars now in Akron are unloaded and returned to the line.

A serious coal shortage is said to be impending in the city as the result of the action by the railroad company.

CROWDS ASSEMBLE TO CHEER WILSON AS PRESIDENT RETURNS TO WASHINGTON

President Wilson was in New York for a few minutes more than half an hour on his way back from Williams-town, Mass., to Washington. Three thousand people were lined up beside the pier at West Seventy-ninth street to cheer when he landed from the Mayflower. With him were Mrs. Wilson, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones. They had come down the Hudson in the Mayflower from Rhinecliff during the night.

The party took a waiting automobile and started downtown to the Pennsylvania station at once. As they climbed the steep grade leading down to the landing the president's car slowed almost to a stop, which gave a half dozen enthusiasts on the sidewalks a chance to run out and grasp his hand. As the president drove down Broadway, leaving behind the crowd that had gathered to see him, the procession of five automobiles, led by a police car with a clanging gong, attracted much attention, but few people realized till he had passed that the president was in one of the autos.

At Fifty-seventh street Miss Margaret Wilson left the party, as she was to remain with friends in New York. The president drove on down Broadway. Another big crowd waiting for him at the Pennsylvania station greeted him lustily Charles R.

Crane, president of the Wilson Business Men's National league; Colonel E. M. House, Gordon Auchincloss, Colonel House's son-in-law; Ambassador Gerard and Alderman John F. McCourt were among those who met him as he boarded his private car, the Mayflower.

A crowd consisting largely of railroad men remained about the platform of the president's car until it pulled out, cheering both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. There were several shouts of "Thank you for the eight hour law." The president smiled, but made no other response. In the picture from right, are President and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Bones.

Berlin admits a retirement of the German-Bulgarian forces in the Cerna river region, on the Macedonian front southeast of Monastir, owing to pressure on their flank, but declares attacks on the Monastir plain have been repulsed.

The British have paused in their advance along the Ancre Brook, in northern France, after capturing Beaumont and taking more than five thousand prisoners. They are now busy consolidating their positions.

Berlin admits the capture of the town, but declares all other assaults by the British were repulsed and that the French were defeated in attacks intended to effect the capture of St. Pierre Vaast Wood, north of the Somme.

INTENTIONS OF RUSSIANS FOR POLAND

(Associated Press Cable.)
Petrograd, November 15.—Russia's intention to create a Poland which embrace all Polish territory, and to maintain it on the basis of autonomy under Russian sovereignty, remains unaltered, says an official announcement issued today denouncing the Austro-Hungarian-German proclamation of an independent Polish state as an effort to swell the ranks of the Teutonic army.

The Austro-German columns have been reinforced by fresh troops. Their advance has been the most notable in the Jiu and Alt Valleys.

On the Moldavian frontier, the successes are on the side of the Roumanians, who claim to be pursuing their Teutonic foe beyond the Transylvania border.

A Roumanian advance in Dobruja where the town of Boasie has been occupied, also is reported by Bucharest.

RAILROADS BEGIN ACTION

Adamson Law is Attacked by the Big Railroads Of the Country, Evidently a Concerted Purpose to Prevent or Delay the Operation of Law.

BROTHERHOODS THREATEN GENERAL STRIKE APPEAL WILL BE MADE TO PRESIDENT

Central Railroad of New Jersey First to Launch Action. Pennsylvania and Other Big Companies Join in Later With Injunction Suits Tying the Hands of the Federal Officers.

New York, November 15.— (Associated Press Dispatch)—The New York Central Railroad will shortly file in the federal court here the first injunction to test the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law, it was announced today by counsel for the road.

The action, it is understood, will be directed against H. Snowden Marshall, United States District Attorney here, and several local officers of the four trainmen's brotherhoods.

A temporary stay will be sought which would enjoin the defendants from instituting prosecutions against the road to compel it to carry out the law.

According to a report published here today, the United States will shortly select one of the railway suits and put it through to a decision, which, should it be unfavorable to the Government, would then be at once taken to the United States Supreme Court.

Railway managers comprising the National Conference Committee continued today consideration of whether wholesale legal action to defeat the Adamson law will be taken, or whether a limited series of injunctions will be filed.

The concensus of opinion was said to favor the former course, which would result in 5,000 actions, covering the entire railroad territory of the United States.

Whichever method is selected, the cases are expected to be in the courts within ten days.

In view of the fact that the Newlands committee is to hold public hearings on the railroad situation beginning Monday, there was an indication that definite action would be postponed until the conclusion of these hearings.

Two developments stood out prominently today in the new situation arising from the forthcoming application of the Adamson law:

First, the announcement that the managers of the roads would probably apply for injunctions against the law in every federal court district in the United States, with a separate suit in behalf of everyone of the 200 railroads in every district which they enter.

Should this step be taken, and the litigation involved run the ordinary course of legal procedure, the eight-hour law will be from six months to two years behind time in going into effect, even if found constitutional, it was declared.

N. Y. CENTRAL, TOO

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, November 15.—The New York Central Railroad today filed ed suit in the federal District Court to test the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law.

The suit is directed against the three Federal District Attorneys of New York State, and the chairmen of the four brotherhoods in the state. The road's principal contention is that the Adamson law is "in no sense a regulation of commerce, but a temporary and arbitrary increase in wages for the brotherhood men."

It is said that as soon as an answer to the suit was filed, an injunction against the operation of the law would be asked.

Announcement that the New York, New Haven & Hartford would also file suit to test the constitutionality of the law was made here today.

PENNSYLVANIA ACTS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Philadelphia, November 15.—The Pennsylvania Company today filed in the Federal district court here a bill in equity asking for an injunction against the three United States district attorneys in Pennsylvania, forbidding them from bringing prosecutions against the railroad company under the Adamson eight-hour law. The court is asked to declare that the eight-hour law is unconstitutional and void.

NORTHERN PACIFIC

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Minneapolis, Minn., November 15.—The Northern Pacific Railway Company, the Great Northern Railway Company, and the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway today filed suit in the federal District Court here, asking for an order preventing the Adamson law from being put into effect.

BROTHERHOODS WILL APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, November 15.—The brotherhoods of trainmen announce that they will make an appeal to President Wilson to give them, on January 1 next the eight-hour day, which they say was promised them at Washington last summer when the strike order was recalled.

The brotherhoods, it was announced, will not contest the suits to be instituted by the roads and will not appear by counsel in court to argue for the constitutionality of the eight-hour law.

The Department of Justice of the federal Government will defend the Adamson law in the pending suits.

Prior to his departure for his home in Cleveland, Warren S. Stone, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, declared that should the law be stricken from the books on the grounds of unconstitutionality, the brotherhoods would depend on President Wilson to have framed another act, which will withstand the attacks of hostile counsel.

PRAYERS WON ON THE GRIDIRON

Captain of Football Team Attributes Success to Prayers.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Decatur, Ill., November 15.—Prayers on the gridiron won the championship of the Little Nineteen Conference for the Millikan University football team, according to a statement made today by Captain Eugene Sutherland.

At critical points in all games during the season, Sutherland said, he called his players about him and prayed.

"They went in with renewed vigor and made their first down, every time," the captain asserted.

O. S. U. DESIGNATED AS MILITARY SCHOOL

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chicago, November 15.—Orders in connection with the designation of five mid-western schools as United States Army training schools, under the national defense act, were received here today by General Thomas Barry, in charge of the Central Division of the United States Army. Among the schools designated which are expected to turn out men able to command troops, is the Ohio State University, at Columbus.

MAJORITY OF COX MAY READ 10,000

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., November 15.—With returns missing from only three counties, unofficial returns on the state ticket tabulated by the Secretary of State shows James M. Cox leading Governor Willis by 9,027 votes. The vote for the 85 counties follows: Willis, 549,283; Cox, 558,310.

COAL DEALERS THINK SUPPLY WILL BE AMPLE

No Cause for Alarm Seen By Washington Coal Dealers—Price Here Lower Than In Most Surrounding Cities—Wood Fires Are Proving Popular In Some Homes—What Dealers Say.

The present cold snap has turned the attention of all who use coal to the coal supply and the price of this very necessary winter commodity, and many persons have become very anxious as to whether the coal supply will be sufficient and whether the price will continue to soar.

Still others have become so alarmed that they have really overstocked with the high priced coal in order that they will not suffer from cold.

A visit among some of the coal dealers of the city brings to light the assurance that unless some unforeseen changes occur, coal will be more plentiful and the price will not advance to any market extent, although at the present time the dealers are unable to obtain as much coal as they desire in order to meet all demands made upon them by the public.

At the present time the Bituminous coal is selling at $5 to $6.25 per ton, while Anthracite, of which there is little or none in the city, is priced at $8.25.

Regardless of the above prices, which are from $1 to $3 higher per ton than last year, Washington citizens, it is announced, are obtaining their coal much cheaper than in any of the surrounding towns, with the possible exception of some of the towns closer to the mines.

If no more were obtainable by the dealers, the present supply would be disposed of in one week's time, according to one dealer. However the dealers are obtaining frequent shipments and manage to meet all demands unless they are exorbitant. In some instances it is necessary to limit a customer to enough to insure an ample supply without permitting him to store away a large reserve supply.

One dealer was of the opinion that it would be the first of March before

GETS LONG FALL IS BADLY HURT

Arnold Jones, son of Wayne Jones, of the eastern part of the city, nearly met death this week while unloading hay in the John Green barn on Washington avenue, when he fell some 20 feet from the hay-loft to the concrete floor below.

The young man was unloading hay and his fall was due to railing giving way, permitting him to plunge through an opening in the floor.

Probably all that saved his life was the fact that a quantity of sawdust had been piled upon the floor at the point where he struck.

He was removed to his home and remained in bed until Wednesday morning, when he was able to be about the house by the aid of crutches.

The Financial End
Financial troubles are again to the forefront with the nations comprising both the Entente Alliance and the Central powers alliances.
Germany and Austria need more money to prosecute the war and Great Britain is now face to face with the necessity of replenishing her treasuries.
After all the war is more and more assuming a form which indicates that the final victory will rest with the side having the greater resources to draw upon. That prediction was made early after hostilities begun and there are many who have adhered tenaciously to that view.
While some marked advances have been made in both the land and sea fighting by the opposing forces yet there has been no such sweeping gain made by either as warrants a prediction of the final outcome of the struggle based on the actual fighting.
The burden of furnishing the necessary finances falls upon Great Britain and Germany. They must not only look after their own finances but must foot the bills incurred by their allies.
All of which is but another evidence that the titanic struggle is, in its last analysis one between Germany and Great Britain.

Holiday Season Near at Hand
It is now only a few weeks until Christmas, almost time to commence the old stereotyped daily warnings to shoppers and it is none too early to call attention to the fact that holiday goods substantial and fancy are already beginning to peep out of the big boxes consigned to local merchants.
In anticipation of meeting a holiday business in keeping with the prosperity hereabouts local merchants have made liberal purchases.
This year will furnish no exception to the general run. Both quantity and quality may be found in the local stores and shops and prices here at home are more reasonable than elsewhere.
Washington has always been proud of her stores and Washington merchants have always striven to deserve the splendid reputation they enjoy.
Few of the larger cities present the buying opportunity that is to be found in Washington stores. Our local merchants keep pace with the best in holiday season and out.
The holiday trade this season promises to be unusually brisk and, in order to make room for the vast quantities of new merchandise coming in to meet the demand it is quite likely that short brisk sales, made in order to clear the shelves to obtain the necessary room, will precede the opening of the holiday season.
Prosperity is everywhere in evidence in the agricultural districts and the 1916 season promises to be a record breaker in business.
It is well for shoppers even thus early to be on the alert for opportunities when the doors open and the beauties of the holiday season in the stores are unfolded.
Get ready to start with the first announcement of the opening.

The Publishers' Troubles
Few people comparatively, appreciate the difficulties which the tremendous increase in the price of news print paper has placed in the pathway of the publisher.
All over the country smaller publications are being compelled to suspend because in many instances the print paper cannot be obtained on the open market at any price or if obtainable the price is practically prohibitive.
Paper has advanced in cost to the publisher more than three hundred percent an advance only equalled by that of a few of the rare drugs and chemicals.
Hundreds of penny papers have been compelled to raise the price to two and many to five cents per copy.
In our own local field we have an illustration of the effect on the publisher in the increased cost of the Cincinnati Enquirer. On Sunday the paper now comes greatly reduced in size and costing the reading public six cents per copy.
Of course in none of the increases in price mentioned is the "boost" proportional to that which the publisher must bear in the cost of his blank paper save only those papers raising the price from one to five cents.
With every other material used in manufacturing the readable newspaper the cost has increased.
Publishers have been compelled to reduce the size of paper and increase the cost in order to "live."
Indeed with regard to the former—reducing the size to the actual demand for space it is not unlikely that federal authorities will compel a strict adherence to economy so vital has become the necessity to prevent any possible waste.

Poetry For Today
HOME O' DREAMS.
My feet had wandered, weary, from off the beaten way,
And I was worn with working, discouraged, too, that day;
And there it stood, all smiling and lit with sunset gleams,
The home that I had prayed for, my little home of dreams.
I'd passed the last white turnstile, the last long field aglow,
And somehow it seemed fragrant with hopes I used to know;
And I could see a figure with ribbons in her hair
Stand out against the twilight, and bid me welcome there.
Was it a week, I wonder, or many bitter years
Since last I saw her standing ***
My eyes are dim with tears.
It looks just like it used to, and yet, somehow, it seems
To miss her as I miss her—Oh, little home o' dreams.

SOLDIERS WILL LOSE WHISKERS
(Associated Press Cable.)
London, November 15.—The long-honored mustache of the English soldier may soon be a thing of the past. By a revised army regulation it is now made optional and already thousands of the carefully cultivated hirsute adornments have fallen before the advance of the grim reaper—usually some brand of American safety razor.
Old-timers in the army regret the passing of this "mark of the soldier" but the youngsters who have been struggling lately to grow a respectable appearing mustache have breathed a distinct sigh of relief. It was comparatively easy in the old days to control the army mustachios but in the tremendous new fighting machine now martialled under the Union Jack they had gotten completely "out of bounds" and had begun to border on the ridiculous.
So an order has been issued striking out the fateful words "but not the upper lip" from Paragraph No. 1696 of the King's Regulations. This paragraph originally read:
"The hair of the head will be kept short. The chin and upper-lip will be shaved, but not the upper lip. Whiskers, if worn, will be of moderate length."
In an attempt to comply with the regulation, and at the same time to enjoy the freedom of a clean shaven face, upper-lip and all, many of the new subalterns and Tommies developed what is known as the tooth-brush mustache. There were such variations as the "tuck," the "flytrap," the "flick sardonic," and the "gingered pert," while some even went so far as to affect a "kaiser twist." There were still others who declined to refer to their attempts at an outward and visible sign of martial valor as "anything but "It."

MILK IMPROVER
(Associated Press Cable.)
London, November 15.—To avoid hardships arising out of the higher price of milk, the Housewives War League has put on the market a so-called "milk improver." It is a white powder, with the correct combination of bone and flesh-forming constituents. A penny's worth, mixed with a pint of water, is added to a pint of cow's milk, and the housewife has a quart of "just-as-good."

CHINESE PLAN GREAT REFORM
(Associated Press Cable.)
Peking, China, November 15.—Chen Chin-tao, the new minister of finance, has outlined plans for financial reform and prepared estimates on the possible income of China under effective administration, which shows an annual total of 490,000,000 dollars silver.
This amount is in decided contrast to the recent annual receipts of the central government, which have been about 70,000,000 dollars silver. Of this sum, the minister of finance says that only 20,000,000 dollars silver can be absolutely depended upon.
The receipts of the central government have dwindled terribly under revolutionary influence. At present less than half a dozen provinces are remitting to Peking, and finances are in a precarious condition.
Chen Chin-tao has advised that a foreign loan of one billion dollars silver should be contracted at once. Of this sum he would use 25,000,000 dollars for the resumption of specie payment on the notes of the Bank of China and the Bank of Communication. For the disbandment of surplus troops 20,000,000 dollars more will be required. Reorganization in the various provinces would claim an expenditure of 25,000,000 dollars, and he suggests an appropriation of 6,000,000 dollars for the improvement of railways, and 40,000,000 dollars for administrative expenditures.
An elaborate plan for the reform of tax collection is outlined, including the making of a proper budget and the reformation of the currency system. He would establish an inspector-general for the supervision of tax collection throughout the republic, fashioned somewhat after the reorganization foreign bankers effected to collect salt taxes pledged to them as security for a reorganization loan.
The minister of finance estimates 120,000,000 dollars can be realized from the land tax under proper supervision.

RELEASE AMERICANS
(By American Press)
Amsterdam, Nov. 16.—The German government released several Americans who were detained after being taken from the Dutch mail steamship Koenigin Beatrix. A German submarine held up the vessel and took it into Zeebrugge last week. The Americans were permitted to return to Holland.

ORDER IS ISSUED
(By American Press)
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 15.—In order to save the apple crop, which is in danger of spoiling, Commissioner McChord of the interstate commerce commission ordered that all railroads return at once all refrigerator cars in excess of 100 per cent of their equipment. The order also prohibits the using of refrigerator cars for hauling any but perishable goods. The order resulted from an appeal made by the International Apple Growers' association in the course of the inquiry here into the shortage of freight cars.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEK.
Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets
If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.
To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.
They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

BIDS FOR LIGHTING TO BE OPENED SOON

Bids for Lighting the streets of Washington according to plans submitted by The Washington Gas & Electric Company and adopted by the council, will be opened Saturday noon and in all probability the contract will be awarded at the next session of the city council.

If the contract is awarded it will mark the close of more than two years' effort to arrive at a new contract, during which time the antiquated system in use in this city has been supplanted to a large extent by the installation of incandescents, the old lamps giving so much trouble by outages and dim burning that it was found necessary to change to the more modern lamps.

M. E. LADIES AID

Important meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society, Grace M. E. church, in church parlors, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. All women of the church urged to attend.

COMPANY M HAS FREEZING WEATHER

Company M of this city, now located on the Mexican border west of El Paso, is experiencing some freezing weather, but the boys are all warmly dressed, have plenty of good food and have become so thoroughly seasoned that they do not mind the cold weather at all.

The chief annoyance during the past few days has been a strong wind which carries the small particles of sand with great violence against their faces and hands, causing them much discomfort.

No illness of importance has been reported among the members of Company M.

IMPERIAL REBEKAH

Regular meeting of Imperial Rebekah Lodge No. 717 at I. O. O. F. Hall, Wednesday evening, November 15th at 7:30. A full attendance is desired. Nomination of officers. Refreshments.

DR. B. H. SHADDUCK UNUSUAL MIXTURE

Dr. Shadduck, the big, busy man for Dr. Bromley, will leave Monday for Washington C. H., Ohio, where the next campaign will open. He leaves to make the necessary preparation for the next campaign.

Have you met Dr. Shadduck? If you haven't, be sure to do so between now and Monday. The Doctor is a fine man and from all appearances is a mixture of all political parties on the callender. He is a socialist in his giving and goes them one better—he not only gives half, but would give his last cent to help his fellow man. He is a Prohibitionist in his drinking, a Progressive in his religious work, Democratic in his associations and politically we believe he is a Republican. They do say that in his home he is independent and wields the big stick, but overshadowing them all is the fact that he is not only a gentleman but a Christian and a great force for righteousness wherever he goes. —Grove City (Iowa) Herald.

PRIZE-WINNING MARE FOUND DEAD IN FIELD

A fine mare owned by Mr. Clark Post of the Creek road, was found dead in the field adjoining the home Tuesday, death seemingly caused by the bursting of a blood vessel. The mare had been prize winner in the Fayette County Fair show classes the past two years.

The Ladies Aid Society of Union Chapel will give a social Saturday night at the township hall, Yatesville. Everybody invited.

The Financial End

Financial troubles are again to the forefront with the nations comprising both the Entente Alliance and the Central powers alliances.

Germany and Austria need more money to prosecute the war and Great Britain is now face to face with the necessity of replenishing her treasuries.

After all the war is more and more assuming a form which indicates that the final victory will rest with the side having the greater resources to draw upon. That prediction was made early after hostilities begun and there are many who have adhered tenaciously to that view.

While some marked advances have been made in both the land and sea fighting by the opposing forces yet there has been no such sweeping gain made by either as warrants a prediction of the final outcome of the struggle based on the actual fighting.

The burden of furnishing the necessary finances falls upon Great Britain and Germany. They must not only look after their own finances but must foot the bills incurred by their allies.

All of which is but another evidence that the titanic struggle is, in its last analysis one between Germany and Great Britain.

Holiday Season Near at Hand

It is now only a few weeks until Christmas, almost time to commence the old stereotyped daily warnings to shoppers and it is none too early to call attention to the fact that holiday goods substantial and fancy are already beginning to peep out of the big boxes consigned to local merchants.

In anticipation of meeting a holiday business in keeping with the prosperity hereabouts local merchants have made liberal purchases.

This year will furnish no exception to the general run. Both quantity and quality may be found in the local stores and shops and prices here at home are more reasonable than elsewhere.

Washington has always been proud of her stores and Washington merchants have always striven to deserve the splendid reputation they enjoy.

Few of the larger cities present the buying opportunity that is to be found in Washington stores. Our local merchants keep pace with the best in holiday season and out.

The holiday trade this season promises to be unusually brisk and, in order to make room for the vast quantities of new merchandise coming in to meet the demand it is quite likely that short brisk sales, made in order to clear the shelves to obtain the necessary room, will precede the opening of the holiday season.

Prosperity is everywhere in evidence in the agricultural districts and the 1916 season promises to be a record breaker in business.

It is well for shoppers even thus early to be on the alert for opportunities when the doors open and the beauties of the holiday season in the stores are unfolded.

Get ready to start with the first announcement of the opening.

The Publishers' Troubles

Few people comparatively, appreciate the difficulties which the tremendous increase in the price of news print paper has placed in the pathway of the publisher.

All over the country smaller publications are being compelled to suspend because in many instances the print paper cannot be obtained on the open market at any price or if obtainable the price is practically prohibitive.

Paper has advanced in cost to the publisher more than three hundred percent an advance only equalled by that of a few of the rare drugs and chemicals.

Hundreds of penny papers have been compelled to raise the price to two and many to five cents per copy.

In our own local field we have an illustration of the effect on the publisher in the increased cost of the Cincinnati Enquirer. On Sunday the paper now comes greatly reduced in size and costing the reading public six cents per copy.

Of course in none of the increases in price mentioned is the "boost" proportional to that which the publisher must bear in the cost of his blank paper save only those papers raising the price from one to five cents.

With every other material used in manufacturing the readable newspaper the cost has increased.

Publishers have been compelled to reduce the size of paper and increase the cost in order to "live."

Indeed with regard to the former—reducing the size to the actual demand for space it is not unlikely that federal authorities will compel a strict adherence to economy so vital has become the necessity to prevent any possible waste.

Poetry For Today

HOME O' DREAMS.

My feet had wandered, weary, from off the beaten way,
And I was worn with working, discouraged, too, that day;
And there it stood, all smiling and lit
with sunset gleams,
The home that I had prayed for, my little home of dreams.

I'd passed the last white turnstile,
the last long field aglow,
And somehow it seemed fragrant with hopes I used to know;
And I could see a figure with ribbons
in her hair
Stand out against the twilight, and bid me welcome there.

Was it a week, I wonder, or many bitter years
Since last I saw her standing * * *
My eyes are dim with tears,
It looks just like it used to, and yet, somehow, it seems
To miss her as I miss her—Oh, little home o' dreams.

SOLDIERS WILL LOSE WHISKERS

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, November 15.—The long-honored mustache of the English soldier may soon be a thing of the past. By a revised army regulation it is now made optional and already thousands of the carefully cultivated hirsute adornments have fallen before the advance of the grim reaper—usually some brand of American safety razor.

Old-timers in the army regret the passing of this "mark of the soldier" but the youngsters who have been struggling lately to grow a respectable appearing mustache have breathed a distinct sigh of relief. It was comparatively easy in the old days to control the army mustachios but in the tremendous new fighting machine now marshaled under the Union Jack they had gotten completely "out of bounds" and had begun to border on the ridiculous.

So an order has been issued striking out the fateful words "but not the upper lip" from Paragraph No. 1696 of the King's Regulations. This paragraph originally read:

"The hair of the head will be kept short. The chin and upper-lip will be shaved, but not the upper lip. Whiskers, if worn, will be of moderate length."

In an attempt to comply with the regulation, and at the same time to enjoy the freedom of a clean shaven face, upper-lip and all, many of the new subalterns and Tommies developed what is known as the tooth-brush mustache. There were such variations as the "tuck," the "flytrap," the "flick sardonic," and the "gingered pert," while some even went so far as to affect a "kaiser twist." There were still others who declined to refer to their attempts at an outward and visible sign of martial valor as anything but "It."

MILK IMPROVER

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, November 15.—To avoid hardships arising out of the higher price of milk, the Housewives War League has put on the market a so-called "milk improver." It is a white powder, with the correct combination of bone and flesh-forming constituents. A penny's worth, mixed with a pint of water, is added to a pint of cow's milk, and the housewife has a quart of "just-as-good."

CHINESE PLAN GREAT REFORM

(Associated Press Cable.)

Peking, China, November 15.—Chen Chin-tao, the new minister of finance, has outlined plans for financial reform and prepared estimates on the possible income of China under effective administration, which shows an annual total of 490,000,000 dollars silver.

This amount is in decided contrast to the recent annual receipts of the central government, which have been about 70,000,000 dollars silver. Of this sum, the minister of finance says that only 30,000,000 dollars silver can be absolutely depended upon.

The receipts of the central government have dwindled terribly under revolutionary influence. At present less than half a dozen provinces are remitting to Peking, and finances are in a precarious condition.

Chen Chin-tao has advised that a foreign loan of one billion dollars silver should be contracted at once. Of this sum he would use 25,000,000 dollars for the resumption of specie payment on the notes of the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications. For the disbandment of surplus troops 20,000,000 dollars more will be required. Reorganization in the various provinces would claim an expenditure of 25,000,000 dollars, and he suggests an appropriation of 6,000,000 dollars for the improvement of railways, and 40,000,000 dollars for administrative expenditures.

An elaborate plan for the reform of tax collection is outlined, including the making of a proper budget and the reformation of the currency system. He would establish an inspectorate-general for the supervision of tax collection throughout the republic, fashioned somewhat after the reorganization foreign bankers effected to collect salt taxes pledged to them as security for a reorganization loan.

The minister of finance estimates 120,000,000 dollars can be realized from the land tax under proper supervision.

RELEASE AMERICANS

(By American Press)

Amsterdam, Nov. 15.—The German government released several Americans who were detained after being taken from the Dutch mail steamship Koening Regentes. A German submarine held up the vessel and took it into Zeebrugge last week. The Americans were permitted to return to Holland.

BIDS FOR LIGHTING TO BE OPENED SOON

Bids for Lighting the streets of Washington according to plans submitted by The Washington Gas & Electric Company and adopted by the council, will be opened Saturday noon and in all probability the contract will be awarded at the next session of the city council.

If the contract is awarded it will mark the close of more than two years' effort to arrive at a new contract, during which time the antiquated system in use in this city has been supplanted to a large extent by the installation of incandescents, the old lamps giving so much trouble by outages and dim burning that it was found necessary to change to the more modern lamps.

M. E. LADIES AID

Important meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society, Grace M. E. church, in church parlors, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. All women of the church urged to attend.

COMPANY M HAS FREEZING WEATHER

Company M of this city, now located on the Mexican border west of El Paso, is experiencing some freezing weather, but the boys are all warmly dressed, have plenty of good food and have become so thoroughly seasoned that they do not mind the cold weather at all.

The chief annoyance during the past few days has been a strong wind which carries the small particles of sand with great violence against their faces and hands, causing them much discomfort.

No illness of importance has been reported among the members of Company M.

IMPERIAL REBEKAH

Regular meeting of Imperial Rebekah Lodge No. 717 at I. O. O. F. Hall, Wednesday evening, November 15th at 7:30. A full attendance is desired. Nomination of officers. Refreshments.

DR. B. H. SHADDUCK UNUSUAL MIXTURE

Dr. Shaddock, the big, busy man for Dr. Bromley, will leave Monday for Washington C. H., Ohio, where the next campaign will open. He leaves to make the necessary preparation for the next campaign.

Have you met Dr. Shaddock? If you haven't, be sure to do so between now and Monday. The Doctor is a fine man and from all appearances is a mixture of all political parties on the callender. He is a socialist in his giving and goes them one better—he not only gives half, but would give his last cent to help his fellow man. He is a Prohibitionist in his drinking. A Progressive in his religious work. Democratic in his associations and politically we believe he is a Republican. They do say that in his home he is independent and yields the big stick, but overshadowing them all is the fact that he is not only a gentleman but a Christian and a great force for righteousness wherever he goes. —Grove City (Iowa) Herald.

PRIZE-WINNING MARE FOUND DEAD IN FIELD

A fine mare owned by Mr. Clark Post of the Creek road, was found dead in the field adjoining the home Tuesday, death seemingly caused by the bursting of a blood vessel.

The mare had been prize winner in the Fayette County Fair show classes the past two years.

The Ladies Aid Society of Union Chapel will give a social Saturday night at the township hall, Yatesville. Everybody invited.

In Social Circles

The Browning Club is launching its 1916-1917 season, under the presidency of Mrs. Haidee VanWinkle Coffman, with plans for outside philanthropic and educational work as well as for the benefit and pleasure of club members.

At Tuesday night's meeting it was decided to give an entertainment to raise funds for a scholarship in the Lincoln Memorial University, of Harrogate, Tenn., the claims of this university and its great work in educating girls and boys hemmed in by the mountains, ably presented by Miss Edith Gardner.

It was also decided to again take up the Christmas sale of Red Cross Seals, which has been annually carried on with success by the Browning club.

The evening's business being disposed of, the department of History, Miss Edith Gardner, vice chairman, presiding, presented the program.

Mrs. Regina Staubs contributed a splendid paper on "Diplomatic Crises" taking up the most important of these as they affected the United States during the past fifty years. Special mention was made of the capture of the Virginia in Grant's administration, the Alabama claims, the Venezuela settlement, and with Germany during the present war.

The interesting subject of "The Army and Navy," was presented by Mrs. Marie Persinger in a fine paper. Mrs. Persinger sketched the early beginning of our army and navy, its progress and equipment up to the present time. In closing the writer impressed the need of individual preparation and the importance of preparedness in individual problems as necessary as military provision.

Miss Ruth Reid played a beautiful Chaminade number most artistically.

Miss Edith Dodd, of Radford, Va., was an out of town guest.

Next week's meeting will be held on Monday night, owing to the lecture course entertainment. It will be the Annual Children's Hour, under the Literary Department.

"Songs of Childhood" contributed to a charming Cecilian program at the Federated Club room Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lillie G. Davis prefaced them with "Readings from a Child's Garden of Verses".

The songs were three of the most taking ballads which genius has offered at the shrine of the children—"In Winter I Got Up At Night"—Nevin—"When I Do Wrong"—Tesché—Macher—"Little Boy Blue"—Nevin and were most effectively sung by Miss Edith H. Gardner.

The Club greatly enjoyed the brilliant paper on "Twenty-five Years of Cecilian work," which won for Mrs. Nina M. Craig recognition at the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Craig also gave a bright paper on "Music in the Home."

Mrs. Morna B. Chapman played beautifully "Pizzicato"—Delibes.

Miss Ada Woodward was elected an active member of the Club.

THIRD DAY OF THE FIN MORRIS TRIAL

Progress was slow in the trial of Finley Morris, Wednesday, and for several hours the defendant was on the stand and underwent rigid cross examination.

Twice it was necessary for court to adjourn until the defendant could talk so that he could be understood, his voice, under excitement, became pitched to such a high point that not a word could be understood.

The accused admitted he was at the Dora Anderson home on the night of Willard Wilson's death, and that he remembered of Wilson attacking him and threatening to kill him, but he did not recall using the gun, although he admitted that he heard the report of the gun.

At three o'clock the testimony for the defense had not all been taken, and indications were that the case would continue over to Thursday.

Three witnesses, Bart and Thomas Mendenhall, of Waverly, and Elijah Rockhold, of Bainbridge, called by the defense, were not used. They drew $15.70 in witness fees.

BAD FREIGHT WRECK ON THE D. T. & I.

Eleven loaded freight cars on the D. T. & I. Railroad were derailed at Fayette Junction at one o'clock this afternoon, and both the D. T. & I. and C. H. & D. lines blocked.

The wreck was due to a broken journal and is a costly one to the D. T. & I.

It was expected the C. H. & D. would be cleared by 4:00 p. m. and trains could then be detoured.

The wrecker from Springfield is on the way to the wreck.

ROBERT W. SPANGLER IS DELIGHTED WITH NEW HOME EDITION

Mr. Robert W. Spangler, formerly of this city and now Editor of The New West Magazine, one of the most up-to-the-minute and best known magazines of the west, published at Salt Lake City, Utah, writes the following complimentary letter relative to the The Herald and to Washington C. H.

Salt Lake City, Utah,
November 10, 1916.

"Editor The Herald,
Washington C. H., O.,
Dear Sir:—

"I have been having an enjoyable time this evening reading your 'New Home Edition' under date of November 3. I want to congratulate you on your enterprise in putting in so fine a newspaper plant, and at the same time congratulate Washington C. H. in having such an up-to-date newspaper. A good newspaper is a town's best advertisement, and you are certainly deserving of the hearty support—both moral and financial—of the people of your city.

It has been a quarter of a century since I was devil on the Register-Democrat, but I notice some of the familiar names in your 'The Human Side' story.

"The Herald wasn't as big in those days as it is now, but she was a mighty good rag at that, and was just as necessary as coffee or fried ham for supper. If the carrier missed, there was sure to be a howl go up, because we HAD to know what had happened that day. And so it is now, I suppose, as you credit your carriers with few 'misses.' Certainly, they 'dassent' miss! Folks must have the Herald.

"After you get 'shook down' into your new home I hope to see a good booster edition of the Herald with some good pictures of your manufacturing industries. Washington C. H. is a live town and deserves some good publicity.

"With best wishes for the success of the Greater Washington Herald, I am,

Sincerely,
ROBERT W. SPANGLER

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, with his daughter Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. Becoming lost in the everglades she falls into the hands of the Seminole Indians. Gloria falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school and meets Freneau at the theater; he has forgotten Gloria. Later Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lola, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her an ally. Freneau takes leave of Gloria and upon him Doctor Royce convicts her. He is delirious. A telegram followed by a letter, comes from Freneau. She replies but her telegrams are returned. She accidentally sees the supposed suicide of Freneau reported in the paper. Royce tells what he knows of Freneau to Mr. Stafford. They seek to prevent scandal from enveloping Gloria. She accuses them of conspiracy against her. Gloria sets about to run down Freneau's murderer. Royce warns Mulry to tell Gloria nothing. Gloria calls on Mulry and there sees Lola who is also worried. Gloria's suspicions are aroused. Royce endeavors to show her the difficulty she faces. Gloria goes to David's country home. She meets Mulry who flees at once. Gloria insists on going to Palm Beach. She is rescued by one of the patrons as his partner, Doctor Royce, however, follows her and when he attempts a rescue, calls down a riot on their heads. The hall is raided and the crowd, including Gloria and Royce, is arrested and taken before Judge Freeman. The newspapers feature Gloria's arrest. She follows the stafford home. She follows Trask and lands on a houseboat to hear him accused of Freneau's murder.

Trask had begun to grow used to the hope that his crime was to go undiscovered, to remain another of the many instances that disprove the old fallacy, "Murder will out." It seemed safe for him to return to his business as burglar, yet he had no sooner entered his own cabin than a strange girl appeared, unexplained, and charged him with the murder. She avowed, in fact, that she had seen him do the deed.

Then she escaped, but after that nothing occurred to hamper Trask's northward voyage in his canal boat. His night was sleepless, however. He started up dozens of times, seeing Gloria's little white finger pointing at him, hearing her cry out again:

"You killed him! I saw you!"

The daybreak found him stretched out at the stern of the canal boat, looking south for some possible avenger. He saw the yacht swooping up the stream long before Gloria made him out. He seemed to feel that the uncanny speed of the boat meant business. So he hunted out his old rifle and kept his eyes on the yacht, as it joined with relentless persistence. Finally he made out Gloria on the prow, pointing at him.

Now Trask felt assured that Gloria was a witch. She had appeared in his cabin, then vanished, only to reappear with a posse of yachtmen. He felt that he had been a fool to let her dupe him when he was alone. Now she had a little army and navy of her own. But if he got rid of her he would be rid of the only witness against him. So he reasoned with a madman's logic. He leveled his rifle at Gloria. He took careful aim. He fired!

"SAM" TO THE FRONT

(By American Press)

Baltimore, Nov. 15.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, believes that the trainmen would be justified in striking on Jan. 1 if entrenched wealth, as he terms it, succeeded in delaying enforcement of the Adamson eight hour law through injunction proceedings. But he does not expect a strike because he believes the railroads will not dare interfere with the operation of the law. "It was provided in the bill that the law become operative on Jan. 1," he said. "There may be court proceedings, but the courts will not restrain the law from becoming effective on the date provided."

HONEYMOON TRAGEDY

(Associated Press Cable.)

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—A tale of Russian jealousy resulted in the arrest on a murder charge of Mrs. Mary Bleschfaka, a boarding house proprietress. The arrest followed the finding of arsenic poisoning in the stomach of Mrs. Sofia Rojewska, a pretty twenty-one year old bride. It is alleged that Rojewski, a boarder, brought his bride into Mrs. Bleschfaka's home, notwithstanding that he had been paying attention to her a year previous. Enraged by the affront, the woman is alleged to have put arsenic in the bride's coffee.

Election Doubt Cost Willcox Many Weary Hours at Phone

Chairman WM. R. WILLCOX.

It was no enviable job that William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican national committee, had in the anxious days that followed the taking of the presidential vote. through the department of agriculture the scientific intelligence of the world. With that combination, every nation in the world ought to come to us to learn how to raise big crops. We ought to raise such big crops that circumstances like the present can never recur, when men can make as if the supply was so short that the middleman could charge for it what he pleased. ## BLAMES THE MIDDLEMEN

Makes No Mention of Petitions to Declare an Embargo on Exportation of Foodstuffs, but Says It Would Not Do For the United States to Be Niggardly With the Rest of the World in Respect to its Food Supply.

"We ought to raise such big crops that circumstances like the present can never recur, when men can make as if the supply was so short that the middleman could charge for it what he pleased. It will not do to be niggardly with the rest of the world in respect to its food supply."

The president did not mention recent petitions to him to declare an embargo on exportation of foodstuffs from the United States to the rest of the world. The president continued:

"It goes without saying that the physical life of the nation has always depended upon the farm. It goes without saying, also, that to a large extent the physical life of the world has drawn its sustenance from the great areas of farm land in the United States. We have sent food to all parts of the world, and the American farmer has contributed to the life of all the countries of the world. But you know that as our own population has increased, the proportion in which we could help foreign countries as contrasted with our own has decreased, and there are problems that are comparable with the problems of statesmanship lying ahead of the farmers of the United States."

"In the future we have got to bring more of the area of the United States under cultivation than is under cultivation now. We have got to increase the product at every point where it is susceptible of being increased."

"We have liberated the credits of the banks and we have mobilized
